LIBRARY WORKSHOPS

All students, staff, and faculty are welcome to attend library workshops – no advance sign-up needed. Workshops meet in the library’s Local History Room, and new topics are offered every month.

THIS MONTH’S TOPICS

CITE IT RIGHT: MLA
- 35 min.
  Review the basics and practice citing in MLA style.

CITE IT RIGHT: APA
- 35 min.
  Review the basics and practice citing in APA style.

SOCIAL MEDIA & THE JOB SEARCH [from Career Services]
- 60 min.
  Learn how social networking can help you land a job from JSCC’s career counselor.

RESEARCH HELP, A CLICK (OR TAP) AWAY

Need reliable information sources for a research project? Check out our Scholarly Articles LibGuide for instructions on using online databases like ProQuest Central and Literature Resource Center to find peer-reviewed articles from academic journals.

Want something more in-depth? ebrary (via NC LIVE) offers full-text e-books – including scholarly titles – that you can read online, download to any computer, or even search inside for keywords. If you’re ready for a break, we’ve got e-books for recreational reading, too. Learn all about e-books and how to borrow them on our new E-books LibGuide.

To browse all our LibGuides, choose "Library" from the JSCC website, then make a selection from the dropdown menu, or go directly to the homepage at the address below.

Boyette Building, 1st Floor • (910) 296-2519 • http://jamessprunt.libguides.com
Library hours: Monday–Thursday, 8am–6:30pm • Friday, 8am–12pm

This program was supported by grant funds from the Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the federal Library Services and Technology Act as administered by the State Library of North Carolina, a division of the Department of Cultural Resources.